

WXPost MAY 15 1975

Algeria Seeking Viet Assets Here

Associated Press

The United States has received three diplomatic notes from Algeria seeking to assume the administration of South Vietnamese assets in the United States, including the former Saigon government's embassy.

All the notes said essentially the same thing, State Department spokesman Robert Funseth reported. That is, the Provisional Revolutionary Government in Saigon has asked Algeria to take over operation of the assets. Funseth said the American response has been the same; the matter is under consideration.