NYTimes

THE NEW YORK TIMES, TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1975

MAY 201975

Saigon Says Refugees Flow Homeward

19 HONG KONG, May (Agence France-Presse) - Tens have been distributed to 223,of thousands of refugees are returning to their homes in the central provinces of South Vietnam, the Saigon radio reported today.

It said in a broadcast monitored here that the first phase of a return-home program had been completed, with soldiers among those who had received passes for the journey.

The broadcast gave details of the program, after it reported on a meeting between South Vietnam's new leaders and representatives of Communist and nonaligned counrepresentatives The tries. pledged help with solving immediate problems, it said.

Broadcasts from Saigon indi-cated that refugees had high and villages in the central provinces were almost depopulated when great columns of refugees fled southward in advance of

Countryside Organization

The radio reported that a countrywide organization to deal with refugee resettlement authorities. and allied postwar problems was set up at the same time as tration.

Travel documents have been civilians and soldiers for re- the end of last month. turn to the central provinces, it said.

It said that temporary housing in Saigon had been found night to combat hoodlums. for those without means to reon sidewalks of the capital.

but it gave no details of where this had been done. It said that 8,000 more tons of rice had ing home.

At the meeting of South Vietnamese leaders with representatives of Communist and nonaligned states, the radio said, South Vietnam was represented by Nguyen Huu Tho, president of the Central Com-mittee of the National Liberation Front; Huynh Tan Phat, President of the Provisional Revolutionary Government, and ment, the new government's Foreign Minister Nguyen Thi radio reported. Binh.

The radio described the meeting as cordial and said that the South Vietnamese had immediate priority. Some towns stressed the historic dimension of their victory.

Crime Rises in Saigon

SAIGON, South Vietnam, May the Communist spring offen-sive, which culminated in the and robberies are mounting surrender of Saigon on April 30. rapidly in this sprawling city were of three million and creating a after having fled when the law-and-order problem that is former regime surrendered. The worrying the new Communist radio said that this ship had been related to the number of peal from the new Government. South Vietnam's new adminis- jobless former soldiers of the ousted regime and to civilians aboard, including who have not received salaries noncommissioned officers and issued to tens of thousands of since the banks were closed at police officers," surrendered on > Summary executions person reported having seen the Sea.

More than 1,000 tons of rice body of a gaudily dressed man lying in the middle of a resi-569 people, the radio said, dential street near the presidential palace Saturday night. Residents of the area, mainly businessmen and affluent fambeen stored for those return- ilies, said the man was a would-be robber who had been caught by a patrol and shot in the temple and legs.

More Return to Saigon

SAIGON, May 19 (AP)-Twc ships have docked in Saigon with Vietnamese passengers who opposed or supported the former anti-Communist govern-

One ship carried several hundred political prisoners from Son Island, site of the so-called "tiger cages" in which foes of the Government of President Nguyen Van Thieu were confined in cramped solitude until their limbs atrophied, the radio said.

It said that the second ship was manned by navy men who returning voluntarily turned back from Indonesian The increase in crime has waters in response to an ap-Ie said that the 45 persons board, including "officers, their arrival in Saigon.

Motorized police patrols have The radio indicated that with been augmented by foot patrols a total of three ships now havthat move about mainly at ing arrived from Son Island, more than 1,300 political prisonof ers had returned from the island turn home and who had lived thieves have been reported. One which is in the South China