

MAY 23 1975
Placer County

Center Set, Refugees Due

About 400 Vietnamese refugees are expected to begin arriving tomorrow at the Weimar Medical Center here in the Sierra foothills, a spokesman at the center said yesterday.

The refugees originally had been expected to be transferred from Camp Pendleton in Southern California earlier in the week. But some minor repairs had to be made to the old tuberculosis of the sponsoring organization, Food the Hungry.

The refugees are expected to stay at the center for about three months.

Associated Press

---