

All GIs May Leave Thailand by Next March

Bangkok

Prime Minister Kukrit Pramoj said yesterday a review of all agreements between Thailand and the United States would be completed within two months and all American troops would be withdrawn by next

March, if not sooner.

Kukrit, who met with a North Vietnamese delegation for 30 minutes, also said, "I'm quite certain that North Vietnam and Thailand will open ties very soon."

United Press