PEKING, June 22 (Agence France-Presse)—The five-member Thai Foreign Ministry delegation led by Anand Panyarachun, Thailand's Ambassador to Washington, left for home this morning after what were described here by a diplomatic source as "satisfactory" negotiations on impending diplomatic relations between Thailand and China. The aim of the delegation visit was to thrash out a "few problems" to prepare for formal recognition. The Thais met yesterday with Chiao Kuan-hua, the Chinese Foreign Minister.

Thailand's Premier, Kukrit Pramoj, announced in Bangkok on Friday that he would go to Peking later this month to sign the joint communiqué announcing the establishment of diplomatic relations.

BANGKOK, Thailand, June 22 (Reuters)—Cambodia's Foreign Minister, Sarin Chha, visited last week several countries, including Albania and Yugoslavia, that had supported the present Cambodian regime during the war, Phnom Penh radio said today.
