

SFChronicle

JUL 18 1975

Hanoi Asks

For Membership In the U.N.

United Nations

North Vietnam has formally applied for membership in the United Nations, an official U.N. spokesman announced yesterday.

The Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam applied for U.N. membership Tuesday.

The Security Council, in which the United States has veto power, will have to decide whether the two applications are acceptable and recommend them to the General Assembly.

United Press