

WXPost AUG 5 1975

Airmail Is Resumed
To South Vietnam

Reuter

Airmail service between the United States and South Vietnam, suspended on April 29, was resumed yesterday, the U.S. Postal Service announced.

"Resumption of service resulted from the Soviet Union's agreement to provide transit service for mail to Saigon," an official statement said.

AUG 5 1975