

THIS COULD BE YOUR FAMILY.

Sponsoring a Vietnamese family is easier and more meaningful than you might think.

The need is great: 80,000 Vietnamese have been living in refugee camps for many weeks waiting for someone like you to give them a helping hand.

What is sponsorship? Your decision to sponsor a family is not a legal commitment. It is a moral agreement that you will help with their resettlement. This means helping to provide the basic requirements of food, shelter and an opportunity for them to become self-sufficient Americans.

Can you get help? Yes. If you feel that you need assistance in being a sponsor, talk with friends, neighbors, members of your church, synagogue or social group. You or your

How to become a sponsor: The procedure for becoming a sponsor is really very simple. First, contact one of the volunteer agencies listed below; indicate your interest in helping a family resettle; and tell briefly what size family you would like to assist. The processing of refugees now takes a short time.

Your help is needed now! The Vietnamese are a proud and industrious people. The 80,000 refugees awaiting sponsors are anxious to become productive members of our society. Won't you give them that chance by writing to one of these agencies today?
