Swiss Turn Down
Vietnam Refugees

Reuter

BERNE, Aug. 13—Switzerland has refused all but two of 166 requests for political asylum from South Vietnamese refugees living abroad, the Justice and Police Ministry said today.

The Swiss authorities are also studying requests for asylum from 406 South Vietnamese and Cambodians, mainly students, already in Switzerland at the time of the Communist takeover last April.

The ministry said the two applications for asylum it approved were made by South Vietnamese who had family relationships with Swiss citizens.
