

Notes on People by Albin Krebs

NYTimes SEP 17 1975

A scheduled appearance at Boston College of Nguyen Cao Ky, former Premier and Vice President of South Vietnam, was canceled yesterday following protests from faculty and student groups. Mr. Ky, who was to have delivered a lecture on the Newton, Mass., campus of the college tomorrow night, had no immediate comment, and his Boston lecture booking Ky's $2,500 fee was being negotiated. Mr. Ky is scheduled to begin a series of lectures at colleges tonight at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. That appearance was expected to receive no further resistance from a group of 13 faculty members, who had earlier sent the University Union, sponsor of the lecture, a letter protesting Mr. Ky's appearance.

●