

THE GREAT WHITEHOUSE TEA PARTY

SCANLAN'S MONTHLY DOESN'T HAVE A CHARLOTTE CURTIS.

BUT SOMETIMES WE THINK THERE'S A PARTY WORTH REPORTING.

LIKE WHEN THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES CLINKS CUPS WITH THE MOST UN-BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE AROUND.

The gentlemen with the President are construction union leaders. They were invited to the White House in May after the hardhats beat up students on the streets of New York. What makes it a surprise party?

● Gentleman "A" was convicted of extortion in Federal Court a month before the party. He was fined $20,000 and given a five-year suspended sentence.

● Gentleman "B" was a leading figure at the secret International Longshoreman's meeting that included such citizens as Tough Tony Anastasia and Frank (Machine Gun Sonny) Campbell.

● Gentleman "C" heads a construction union that remains almost 100% lily white.

● Gentleman "D", in testimony before the Senate Labor Rackets Committee, was accused of demanding and receiving $30,000 for "settling" a union dispute. He never denied it.

And now for something more about Scanlan's.

Scanlan's is run by Sidney Zion (formerly of The New York Times) and Warren Hinckle (formerly of Ramparts).

Our motto is: YOU TRUST YOUR MOTHER BUT YOU CUT THE CARDS. In seven months we've cut the cards on a lot of mothers.

● NEW YORK'S RESTAURATEURS (our Dirty Kitchen series did what Health Department Deputy Commissioner Lowell E. Bellin called "a valuable muckraking job that focused attention on a very disturbing sanitary problem"—and led to the recent headline making revamping of the restaurant inspection system).

● CBS (we gave you the program notes on the "revolution" they helped to stage).

● MAOISTS IN LIMERICK (we gave you the pogrom notes).

● J. EDGAR HOOVER (we introduced you to the woman in his life—Mrs. Macjigne Gun Kelly).

● JEAN-CLAUDE KILLY (we mapped his long downhill run from champion to car hardhat demonstrations against peace-marchers).
