Kys Scheduled To Have Dinner With Reagans

Sacramento

Governor Ronald Reagan's office said yesterday Republic of Vietnam Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky and Mrs. Ky were scheduled to be the guests of Governor and Mrs. Reagan at a private dinner last night.

Anna Chennault, widow of Flying Tiger leader General Claire Chennault, describing herself as "a very, very close friend" of both the Reagans and the Kys, said in Washington she planned to attend the dinner.

The dinner was scheduled to be held at the Governor's rented home here.

But the State Department late yesterday released a guest list for the dinner which showed that Mrs. Chennault will attend, as will Republic of Vietnam Ambassador to the United States Bui Diem; Vietnamese Air Force Chief General Tran Van Minh, and Dang Duc Khoi, a special assistant to Ky.
