

Mr. NIXON

When you speak tonight, remember the American people want

NO MORE MYLAIs
NO MORE INVASIONS
NO MORE EVASIONS

Get Out Now!

A political crisis is sweeping this country. The crisis stems from the continued pursuit of a bloody and costly military victory in Vietnam. The conviction of Lt. William Calley has triggered a deep wave of revulsion against the war. It has brought home to the American people the barbaric character of that war. Millions of Americans are convinced that a junior grade officer was selected to bear the guilt for those who have actually shaped U.S. military policy. One point is especially clear; the nightmare of Mylai was the direct product of our involvement in Vietnam. There is no right way to fight a wrong war. The only guarantee that there will be no more Mylais is for the U.S. to get out of Indochina and to get out now!

Mr. Nixon Each time the sentiment for peace in Vietnam has reached a new crest—each time national peace demonstrations have been announced—you have taken to the air with assurances that the war is being “wound down.”

In April, 1970 you said the war was nearly over. Then you ordered the invasion of Cambodia. In early 1971 you told the American people you could see the light at the end of the tunnel. Then you ordered the invasion of Laos!

It is plain the American people want no more empty promises. Nor will they settle for talk about ending U.S. ground fighting at some future date, while the escalated bombing goes on. Their opposition to the war is intensified by the growing realization of the enormous toll the war is taking at home. Funds desperately needed for homes, schools, hospitals and other social needs are drained away. Rising unemployment, runaway inflation and high taxes strike hardest at the nation's poor, especially those on welfare. And, inevi-ably a war atmosphere bolsters the forces of racism and political repression.

As you know, nationwide demonstrations demanding "Out Now!" from Indochina and an end to the draft will be held in Washington and San Francisco on April 24. Tonight you will no doubt repeat vague promises of future peace in order to keep people home April 24th. It won't work! The American people want no more Mylais. No more invasion. No more evasions. The American people want to get out now!

That's why we will march in Washington April 24.*
