

Jury Study Of Deaths at Kent State

Washington

The Justice Department will take the renewed investigation of the 1970 student deaths at Kent State University before a federal grand jury in Ohio next week.

Assistant Attorney General J. Stanley Pottinger announced last night that a grand jury will be convened in Cleveland next Tuesday "to receive sworn testimony and act in its capacity as an investigative body."

Acting Attorney General Robert H. Bork concurred in Pottinger's decision, which reversed the action of former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, who chose in August, 1971, to drop the investigation without presenting evidence to a federal grand jury.

AP Photo

J. STANLEY POTTINGER
He announced probe

Associated Press