Thus, Mr. Nixon's ~~claim~~ not only can do nothing to effect the release of the prisoners; it is also an explicit admission that the policy of unilateral withdrawal ~~is~~ not be a policy of total withdrawal but ~~of~~ withdrawal to some point to be determined ~~by~~ on a ~~case-by-case~~ basis; if we are to keep some troops in South Vietnam until the prisoners are released, we may keep both troops and prisoners there forever.
