

SWEDEN ANNOUNCES GRANT
OF $31.7 MILLION TO HANOI

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 14 (Reuters)-- A humanitarian ~~grant~~ grant of $31.7 million to Hanoi was announced today by ~~Sweden~~ Sweden.

The Government said the sum was originally intended for reconstruction work after the war ended. But Lennart Klackenberg, State Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said the grant was being released now because all major cities in North Vietnam had been devastated in U.S. bombing raids.

Mr. Klackenberg has just returned from a visit to Hanoi.
