

SFChronicle DEC 25 1973
Skirmishes

In Vietnam-- Alert in Saigon

Saigon

Small skirmishes throughout South Vietnam yesterday dampened hopes for a Christmas truce and prompted the government to put security forces in Saigon on alert.

The Saigon command said two helicopters of the two-party Joint Military Commission carrying South Vietnamese and Viet Cong officers came under Communist attack yesterday, but there was no damage.

United Press