F.B.I. Says 'Galt' Is an Escaped Convict

iated Press and United Press International Photos issued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation are said to depict James Earl Ray, ataleft in 1966, center in 1960 and right in 1968, under the name of Eric Starvo Galt.

By FRED P. GRAHAM dial to The New York Times

OEPT.

ORRECTIONS

MO.

OF

WASHINGTON, April 19-Earl Ray was the man being by the bureau. sought under the alias of Eric Starvo Galt for the murder of Clark and J. Edgar Hoover, the to pictures of Galt, taken in the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther director of the bureau, said in 1968, that the bureau released King Jr.

The bureau pictured Ray as escaped from the Missouri State a trouble-prone "drifter" with Penitentiary on April 23, 1967. a long record of erratic and violent behavior.

Galt's true identity was dis-covered after latent finger- armed robbery and car theft in prints uncovered in the King St. Louis. The Federal Bureau of Investi-gation announced today that an escaped convict named James 53,000 persons listed as wanted Ray that were taken by Mis-Ray that were taken by Mis-Attorney a joint announcement that Ray Wednesday.

Ray, a 40-year-old native of souri prison officials in 1960. General Ramsey They bear a close resemblance

Ray had close-cropped hair and a leaner face than the Galt Illinois, had served seven years Continued on Page 31, Column 4

Continued From Page 1, Col. 4

photo shows, but the protruding left ear, which the bureau emphasized in its initial de-scription of Galt, appears to be the same in both photographs.

The F.B.I. announced Ray's identity after an around-theclock check of fingerprint records.

ords. Fingerprints can be matched quickly by an elaborate classi-fication and filing system when the full 10 prints of the un-known person are available, on a card that identifies the finger and hand represented by each print.

on a card that identifies the finger and hand represented by each print. But when only a few prints are available and it is not known which fingers or thumbs made them, they can be checked only by comparing each latent print with all 10 prints on the card of each wanted person. Ray was said to have used the names of James McBride, James Walton, W. C. Herron and James O'Connor during his criminal career. When the F.B.I. filed formal charges against Galt on Wednesday, it gave two other aliases, John Willard and Harvey Lowmyer.

The identification of Galt as the escaped convict explains some of the circumstances that led to speculation Galt might have established a false idenhave established a false iden-tity in contemplating the as-sassinating of Dr. King. Galt first appeared, accord-ing to F.B.I. statements, on Aug. 30, 1967, when he pur-chased a white Mustang car in Birmingham, Ala. Despite ef-forts to check back on Galt's earlier activities, no trace of him before the fall of last year was disclosed.

was disclosed. On Wednesday fugitive a warrant was obtained by the bureau accusing Galt of having conspired with a person "whom he alleged to be his brother" to injure Dr. King and violate his civil rights.

Dr. King was killed by a sniper on April 4, as the civil rights leader stood on the bal-cony of the Lorraine Motel in Memphis. The Tennessee authorities have sworn out an arrest warrant charging Galt with murder.

Bureau spokesmen declined to say whether Ray had a brother or to comment on re-ports that the bureau had the "brother" in custody.

No New Warrant Planned Special to The New York Times

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 19 -The F.B.I. does not plan to issue a new warrant for the arrest of Ray. Joseph H. Gamble, the agent in charge of the Pirminghout of Joseph H. Gamble, the agent in charge of the Birmingham of-fice, said that because Galt was an alias used by Ray, the war-rant issued on Wednesday was legally sufficient. A source said that the bureau thought that Galt's "alleged brother" probably was not a relative. Galt had reportedly told a gun store clerk in Birm-ingham that he and his brother ingham that he and his brother planned to go hunting with a rifle he was purchasing. The .30-'06 caliber Remington rifle was found on a Memphis street on April 4 near the site of Dr. King's murder.