San Francisco Chronicle 引 1 Ned., May 1, 1968

Clue in the King Case

ssassin's M aD 0

Washington

A map of Atlanta with the area of Dr. Martin Luther King's residence and church circled has been linked to accused assassin James Earl Ray by the FBI, it was learned yesterday.

The Los Angeles Times learned from an unimpeachable source that the map is part of the FBI's evidence in on Auburn Avenue in a Negro business area on the eastern edge of downtown At-lanta and the area of Dr. King's residence several miles southwest of downtown Atlanta. Dr. King and his fa-ther, the Rev. Martin Luther King Sr. served as co-pastors of the church.

The map tends to support a theory by some investigators that Ray stalked Dr. King for some time before fatally shooting him on April 4 as the civil rights leader stood on a balcony outside his Memphis motel room.

Ray has been the object of a nationwide manhunt since its civil rights conspiracy April 17 when the FBI case against Ray. plaint listing him under the alias of Eric Starvo Galt --with conspiring to violate Dr. King's civil rights. Memphis police quickly followed up with a murder charge.

> Two days after filing the complaint, the FBI an-the Ebenezer Baptist church covered in its investigation theory that ray, on Auburn Avenue in a Ne- revealed tht Galt acutally known to be strang was Ray, a 40-year-old escaped convict from the Missouri State Penitentiary.

ABANDONED

How the FBI obtained the Atlanta map with its markings is not known. It apparently was eigher left by Ray as he fled the murder scene or was found in a car e abandoned in Atlanta.

The FBI aleges Ray bought a rifle with telescopic sight in Birmingham on March 29. And Jefferson County (Birmingham) Sheriff Mel Bailey has said the killing probably was planned in Birmingham as long ago as last October or November.

Federal investigators, how-The areas circled included nounced that fingerprints une ever, apparently favor the who was known to be strangely impulsive, did not plan the killing over that long a period of time.

The FBI apparently has lost all trace of Ray since between April 5 — 12 to 14 hours after the killing — when a man believed to be him was seen abandoning a white Mustang in a public housing project in Atlanta. QUESTION question still bothering A the FBI is whether Ray, although he is believed to have acted alone in the actual as-sassination, might not have been a hired killer. He is believed to have spent $6000 to $8000 in cash after his escape and had no known employment during that time.

Times-Post Service

* 30 MAR? SEE NYTIMES APR 68 19