

Trent Gough, Canadian actor who is organizer and chairman of the NY Citizens Committee of Inquiry (organized 1967, after Garrison case broke) picks up Bill Tuern's link between the Galt sketch and the picture of a man arrested in Dealey Plaza 22nov63. He appears to downgrade the whole matter, however, citing only three men arrested instead of 10, saying the man in question was drunk and that none of the three ever has been positively identified.
