

The Periscope, p. 12:

James Earl Ray: still trying

James Earl Ray, the convicted assassin of Dr. Martin Luther King, apparently hasn't given up hope for a new trial despite a series of rejected appeals. Ray's lawyers are still collecting documents and statements from individuals who had contact with Ray between the time of King's death and Ray's arrest in London.

Rev. A.D. Williams King

Obituaries in Time, 1 Aug, p. 65

Newsweek, 4 Aug, p. 63