Brief report by Bud Fensterwald on his trip to England 2-15 Nov 69, dealing mainly with activities of various Sneyds in London.

"At this point, I am convinced that there were two Sneyds in London some of the time between May 17 and June 8; I am not convinced that two were arrested though this is possible."

"Mrs. [Anna] Thomas, proprietor of the Pax ... said Memphis and Nashville Sneyds were definitely not her Sneyd."

"Scotland Yard seems as 'up tight' about this case as does the FBI."
