

James Ray Refused a New Trial

KNOXVILLE, (Tenn.) — (AP) — The Tennessee Supreme Court unanimously rejected today an appeal by James Ray for a new trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray pleaded guilty last March 10 to the 1968 slaying of King in Memphis. Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle sentenced Ray to 99 years in state prison.