

---

Carrier for Dr. King Urged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (UPI) — Armed Forces Journal, the oldest military magazine in the country, proposed today that the Navy's next aircraft carrier be named for the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., symbolizing "that the Navy, once the most lily white of all the services, has finally come into the 20th century." The publication dates to the Civil War.

---