

Armed forces take over in Chile.

President Salvador Allende, in last public statement before his death, made by radio as air force jets fly over the presidential palace, says: "I will not resign. I will not do it. I am ready to resist with whatever means, even at the cost of my life in that this serves as a lesson in the ignominious history of those who have strength but not reason."

All clippings on this filed separately, under Chile.