Mitchell Asks New Name For 'No Knock' Authority

By WARREN WEAVER Jr. JUL 21 1970

Special to The New York Times

torney General John N. Mitch-time on their own decision. ell told a House committee today that the "no knock" au-thority Federal agents are a person's premises without seeking to strengthen their announcing his authority and warrant has been obtained, proposed that "no knock" be renamed "quick entry." The latter term, he said, would be less misleading and prejudicial.

and easily destroyed of that there is a danger to life and limb of the agent."

Authority for "no knock" searches is contained in the District of Columbia Crime Rill new before the Senate for cial.

and Means Committee, Mr. tough narcotics bill that was Mitchell emphasized tht if Fed-eral agents were granted "no January and is now pending in power, they nevertheless would not be authorized Continued on Page 22, Column 5

WASHINGTON, July 20-At-to enter private homes at any

"Under the 'no knock' rule," search powers had become a purpose only if he has obtained widely misunderstood "catch-a search warrant from a judge word." ord."

The Attorney General, de-suaded there is probably cause fending the principle of forced that evidence will be quickly entry without warning after a and easily destroyed or that

Bill now before the Senate for Testifying before the Ways final approval and in a new approved by the Senate last

S, TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1970

MITCHELL SEEKS

As a conference report, it is not subject to amendment—for example, to delete the "no knock" provision—but must be adopted or rejected as a whole.

This anticrime weapon was attacked and defended on the Senate foor today in the third say of inconclusive debate on the District of Columbia measure. Under an agreement reached today, the bill will come up for a final vote Thursday afternoon.

The 500-page measure before the Senate is a conference report, the product of three sexample, to delete the "no knock" provision—but must be adopted or rejected as a whole.

As a conference report, it is not subject to amendment—for example, to delete the "no knock" provision—but must be adopted or rejected as a whole.

As a conference report, it is not subject to amendment—for example, to delete the "no knock" provision—but must be adopted or rejected as a whole.

Senate crime in the past.

Senator Joseph D. Tydings, Democrat of Maryland, the chief system the House would not accept any "watered down" version that might be drafted if the presult today, charging that the "no knock" provision was "noxious policy, bad law that is likely to be unconstitutional."

Mr. Goodell also criticized sentencing provisions in the future will have in it every feature this bill contains and months of effort by representatives of the House and Senate to compromise differences between the separate bills they passed earlier.

As a conference report, it is not subject to amendment—for or a felony. He said such senate conference."

months of effort by representatives of the House and Senate to compromise differences between the separate bills they passed earlier.

As a conference report, it is not subject to amendment—for or a felony. He said such senate conference."