NYTimes filed Surveillance

F.B.I. SAID TO BUG A HOUSE MEMBER [Rep. John Dowdy] Agents Reportedly Sent Man Wearing Hidden Recorder to Office at the Capitol by Robert M. Smith Special to The New York Times

Washington, April 15 - .... The Supreme Court ruled last week that the police and Federal agents do not need a warrant when they wire an informer for sound so that he records conversations with suspects. ....

[Story does not say when the bugging took place but it was before the Supreme Court ruling "last week," since Mr. Dowdy was indicted March 30. The story does say, "In the Dowdy case [the local United States Attorney, Stephen H. Sachs] sought and obtained a court order from [Federal District Judge Roszel C. Thomsen] authorizing the eavesdropping, presumably to make sure of his legal ground."] [Monday, 5 Apr?]