Calley Defense Asks Disclosure Of Top-Secret Data on Songmy

Counsel Says C.I.A. Records on Its Operation Phoenix in '68 May Be Involved

FORT BENNING, Ga., Aug. 24 (UPI) - Defense attorneys sought today the disclosure of what they termed key and classified information that might shed further light on the alleged massacre at Songmy in 1968 and the secretive Operation Phoenix.

The action came during a closed pretrial hearing for First Lieut. William L. Calley Jr., a former platoon leader who is charged with the premeditated murder of at least 102 South Vietnamese civilians.

The chief civilian defense atlorney, George W. Latimer, said most of the morning hearing was taken up with arguments on motions for discovery — perusal by the defense of documents and memorandums that the Government is expected to use in any trial action against the lieutenant.

Late today the hearing was recessed until tomorrow, with more about Operation Phoenix, several motions still to be pre-Mr. Latimer replied that he agreed to a closed hearing beagreed to a closed hearing be- "other cause of the top-secret nature heard." of matters to be discussed.

ders and information acquired leged massacre March 16, 1968. through secret channels.

Agency) records," he added.

Lieutenant Calley, smiling but Vietcong and Communist sympathizers.

broadly, walked rapidly from a green staff car with his attorneys into the courtroom ment has been reasonable with the start of the courtroom. where he may eventually go on us. They wouldn't insist on a trial for his life. The trial had classification without a reason. been expected to get under Lieutenant Calley is one of well affect national security. But, the soft-spoken attorney observed, "I think anytime ist 4 Robert W. T'Souvas, you are going to use classified to death it found guilty. documents to try to convict Songmy, is scheduled to resume a man . . . I think we are en-Wednesday at Fort McPherson titled to see them."

United Press International First Lieut. William L. Calley Jr. at Fort Benning, Ga.

Asked if he hoped to learn sented. Mr. Latimer said he exthought the question would depected a new trial date would finitely arise during the hearing. He conceded that he know The defense and prosecution nothing about the operation could be a closed hearing be- "other than what I have ing. He conceded that he knew Published reports have de-Mr. Latimer said that what a code name for a secret C.I.A. would include the written oroperation that led to the al-The reports said the C.I.A. had "I think we are trying to get ordered the hamlet wiped out some C.I.A. (Central Intelligen because it was filled with noth-way today but was postponed a dozen defendants charged in the alleged massacre, but the Mr. Latimer said some of only one, so far, who faces what he hoped to learn from capital charges. He could be the classified documents might sentenced to death if found in Atlanta.