Ex-G.I. Says He Saw Calley And Mitchell Kill Civilians

Tells Court-Martial Screaming Women, Children and Old Men at Mylai 4 Were Pushed Into a Ditch and Then Shot

OCT 20 1970 By DOUGLAS ROBINSO 0/61 07 100 Special to The New York Times

the South Vietnamese hamlet after several weeks of delay of Mylai 4 in 1968 testified caused by a legal maneuvering today that screaming women, and the selection of a panel of children and old men had been officers to hear the case. pushed into a ditch and shot by S. Sgt. David Mitchell and Sec-a brief opening statement by Another former member said ernment would prove that Serthat he had observed both men geant Mitchel; had fired into a standing at the edge of the group of "helpless, unarmed ditch but had seen only the old men, women and children lieutenant fire.

One of the witnesses, a radio rifle fire." man with the infantry unit, said that he had seen Sergeant the proceedings of Mitchell, who is standing court-of a House st martial here on a charge of investigate assault with intent to commit lease murder, fire two magazines of bullets from his M-16 rifle intr

FORT HOOD, Tex., Oct. 19-1 the mass of people. The accu-A former member of the infan- sations came at the outset of try company that swept through testimony in the court-martial

The testimony today followed ond Lieut. William L. Calley Jr. the trial counsel that the Govwith short bursts of automatic

There was no menti-