"HURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1970

Mondale Calls School Policy a 'Hoax'

By PAUL DELANEY

Aug. 12 Mondale, WASHINGTON, Senator Walter F. Mondale, Democrat of Minnesota, charged today that the Nixon Administration was continuing to grant tax-exempt status to white private schools in the South, contrary to previously announced policy.

no investigation of the schools prior to issuance of the exempt status, but relies on the "good faith word" of the school officials. Senator Mondale charged that such a procedure was allowing the proliferation of the "segregation academies."

pen in this country and I deeply regret it," Mr. Mondale added somberly.

The Senator charged that one private school granted exempt status last week, the Nathanael Green Academy, at Si-to grant tax-exempt status to white private schools in the South, contrary to previously announced policy.

I. R. S. Policy Defended

In what the Senator termed the most depressing testimony he had heard so far, the Internal Revenue Service Commissioner, Randolph W. Thrower told the Senate Select Committee on Equal Educational Opportunity today that tax-exempt status was granted solely on the word of officials of the schools that minorities would be admitted.

Mr. Thrower made a similar announcement on July 10 when he said the I.R.S. would no longer give exempt status to white schools that continued to segregate. He said the only proof furnished by schools to the agency was written declaration that they were now open to all races.

Senator Mondale called the Administration's policy a "fraud and a hoax," asserting that accepting the word of white officials of schools set up to circumvent integration was "palpably ridiculous."

Mr. Thrower testified that the revenue service conducts of the service conducts of the service conducts of the service conducts of the schools that continued to white schoo thanael Green Academy, at Siloam, Ga., is housed in a form-