

Mrs. Mitchell Becomes A Cover Girl for Life

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UPI)—Mrs. John N. Mitchell has made the cover of next week's Life magazine, much to her delight.

The wife of the Attorney General had been a candidate for the cover two weeks ago but lost out to Angela Davis, a black Communist, who was put on the 10-most-wanted list of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"I'm almost excited," Mrs. Mitchell said today. "I've made the front of Life magazine."

Life officials said Mrs. Mitchell would appear on the cover of the Oct. 2 edition that would go on sale Sept. 28. The cover picture and those planned for an inside article were taken at Newport Beach, Calif., when the Mitchells joined President and Mrs. Nixon for a late summer vacation at the western White House.
