ATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1970

Nixon Chooses Rep. Bush To Succeed Yost at U.N.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 the United Nations at the end (UPI)—President Nixon today of the current General Assem-announced his nomination of bly session. Mr. Nixon said he George H. W. Bush of Texas, then began conversations to as United States representative find a successor.

Mr. Nixon told Mr. Bush he would have "big shoes to fill, but I'm sure you will meet that challenge." Mr. Bush, a Repub-lican Congressman since 1967, said he was facing "a great and awesome responsibility." The Bursdent mede rubile Mr. Nixon said he planned to submit Mr. Bush's name to the Senate for confirmation on Jan. 20 when the new Congress convenes.

ly summer and expressed a de-sire to complete his service at announced m. George H. W. Bush of Texas, as United States representative at the United Nations. President Nixon introduced Mr. Bush to White House news-men as a man with "enormous interest in the United Nations." Pending Senate confirmation early next year, Mr. Bush is to succeed Charles W. Yost, a ca-retirement in January, 1969, to serve with "great distinction" in the United Nations. Mr. Nixon's first choice for the job was Daniel Patrick Moynihan, a White House counselor and urban-affairs adviser, who declined the offer and decided to return to Har-vard University. Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Nixon told Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' Announced management to the president solution to the president to the president to the president to the president to the presentative of the gob was Daniel Patrick Moynihan, a White House counselor and urban-affairs adviser, who declined the offer and decided to return to Har-vard University. Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Nixon told Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Nixon sold Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Nixon sold Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Nixon sold Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' Mr. Sold Mr. Bush he Big Shoes to Fill' awesome responsibility." The President made public an exchange of letters in which he told Mr. Yost he had helped the public realize "the full dimensions of the contribution which the United States can make and must make to a world of peace and justice." Mr. Yost told newsmen he appreciated the "strong sup-port" he had received from Mr. Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers. The President, in his presen-tation, disclosed that Mr. Yost had approached him in the ear-ly summer and expressed a de-

DO NOT FORGET THE NEEDIEST!