G.O.P. GROUP PLANS ANTI-NIXON MEETING

ANTI-NIXON MEETING Special to The New York Times WASHINGTON, April 13 — Republican figures critical of President Nixon's policies plan to meet early next month to discuss their future "insur-gency" activities, former Sen-ator Charles E. Goodell of New York disclosed today. The meeting could end up being an "organizational meet-ing" of anti-Nixon Republicans, Mr. Goodell said. Over breakfast with a group of reporters, the former Repub-lican Senator, who was de-feated last November with the help of the Administration, said that participants in the meeting would include Repre-sentatives Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California, who had in-dicated that he may challenge Mr. Nixon in the Republican Presidential primaries next year, and Donald W. Riegle Jr. of Michigan. "I would say that Mr. Nixon is in trouble with this Republi-can group on the war, on the economy, on the cities and on the environment," Mr. Goodell said. But he said that he did not foreclose the possibility that he said, But he said that he did not foreclose the possibility that he could end up supporting Mr. Nixon for re-election next year if the President changed some of his policies.

•
