Agnew Is Off on 10-Nation Tour; Carries Messages From Nixon

By ROBERT B. SEMPLE JAUN 28 1971

To Sound Out Leaders

"I certainly will be interested in learning what comments might come" from the heads of state, he replied.

Officials said Mr. Agnew's present journey, unlike his previous trips, had no central theme and some elements had been incorporated at the last minute.

minute.

The Vice President traveled to 10 Asian nations in December, 1969, and January, 1970. In August, 1970, he returned to the area for consultations in Cambodia, Thailand, South Cambodia, Thailand, South Vietnam, Taiwan and South Vietnam, Taiwan and South Korea.

In both instances his pur-pose was to discuss the United States withdrawal from Viet-nam and the Nixon Doctrine of replacing direct American combat assistance with military and economic support to Asian nations.

Variety of Countries

What his present trip lacks what his present trip lacks in specific purpose, it makes up in variety Mr. Agnew will visit South Korea, Singapore, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Ethiopia, Kenya, the former Belgian Congo, Spain, Morocco, and Portugal

HONOLULU, June 27—Vice President Agnew embarked today on a 31-day goodwill mission that will take him to 10 friendly nations in Asia, Africa anr Europe.

Speaking briefly to reporters before he left for Hawaii this morning from El Toro Marine Corps Air Station near the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., Mr. Agnew footfidential message" from President Nixon to several heads of state.

He said the messages contained "nothing of tremendous moment" and he characterized his journey as part of a contained "nothing of tremendous his journey as part of a contained "nothing of the reduction of the trip. Other stops were added later. Saudi Arabia.

In South Korea's defense needs in light of the reduction of united States has sought to limit, as well as South K

China Trade an Issue

In Singapore, Mr. Agnew is likely to be asked about Mr. Nixon's recent efforts to expand trade and travel to Communist China. He will undoubtedly discuss the Middle East conflict while he is in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait.

Talking points in Ethiopia, Kenya, the Congo and Morocco will include economic aid and broader questions of African

The trip to Spain is described as little more than a vacation for the Vice President.

for the Vice President.

The delegation accompanying the Vice President to the inaugural ceremonies in Seoul includes representatives G. Elliott Hagan, Georgia Democrat, and Samuel L. Devine, Ohio Republican, former Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, and Bryce Harlow, former Assistant to the President for Congressional Relations and now the Washington representative of Procter and Gamble Manufacturing Company.

Senator James Buckley, con-

sit South Korea, Singapore, uwait, Saudi Arabia, Ethiopia, servative of New York, is expected to join the party in South Korea. Mrs. Agnew will be vititing dent on this trip.

AgnewWouldVisit China

By ROBERT B. SEMPLE Special to The New York Times

GUAM, Tuesday, June 29-Vive President Agnew said yesterday that he would be happy to visit China despite what he described as personal reserva-tions about its diplomatic pos-

Mr. Agnew, who has expressed misgivings to the National Security Council and to reporters about some aspects of President Nixon's efforts to lift restrictions on trade with of President Nixon's efforts to lift restrictions on trade with and travel to China, said that its attitude toward the United States, as expressed in official publicaions, remained "basically quite hostile."

But he said he shared Mr. Nixon's concern "about the need to diminish hostilities and open communications with open communications mainland China."

"To have a chance to visit and to converse directly with the representatives of that the representatives of that country would be quite a privilege," he added.

Mr. Agnew's comments came

Mr. Agnew's comments came during an exchange with newsmen aboard the Presidential jet carrying him from Honolulu to Guam on the first leg of a 31-day tour of 10 nations in Asia, Africa and Europe.

Due in Seoul Today

He will make his first major stop today in Seoul, capital of South Korea, where he will attend inaugural ceremonies for Chung Hee Park, who was re-elected to a third term as President two months ago.

Mr. Agnew said he expected to cover a wide range of subjects in his discussions in Seoul, including the level of South Korea's commitment to the war in Vietnam. In response to questions, he said he did not think that Seoul's discussions with Saign on the possibility of withdrawing 15,-000 of its 48,000-man contingent in Vietnam "affect in any way the announced program of withdrawal of American troops."

Despite Doubts

The Vice President virtually conceded that his visit to South Korea—a short plane ride across the Yellow Sea from China —represented the centerpiece of his tour as well as its origi-