

Agnew Has Nothing To Say

Kinshasa (Congo) - (AP) - Vice President Agnew had no comment today on President Nixon's announcement of plans to visit China, a spokesman said.

Earlier this year Agnew was critical of some U.S. initiatives toward the Chinese.

Speaking to Republican governors at Williamsburg, Va., April 19, he was quoted as expressing misgivings about the American table tennis team's tour. "He seemed to be implying that we shouldn't have a thaw," one source said at the time.
