How Kissinger Flew to

Presidential adviser Henry Kissinger flew from Pakistan to Peking by commercial airliner under an assumed name and with a foreign passport to con-ceal his secret trip July 9, informants here said yesinformants here said yesterday.

In the first report on the mechanics of the trip, the informants said Rissinger and three assistants from the national scentily staff traveled by Pakis ball luternational Airways to mainland China and returned July 11 on the same airling. same airline.
They said the German-born

House in San Clemente de-clined to give any details of Kissinger's secret trip that arranged President Nixon's planned of the planned of the hander visit to Peking Informants in Saigon said kissinger dared not make the trip in a White House staff plane, or a Chinese military plane. They said this would have revealed the mission to the crowner and also sion to the crewmen and also that radar stations along the way would have picked up military planes and become suspicious.

Accompanying Kissinger were John Holdridge, Winston Lord and Richard Sny-

Klssinger's trip to China was one of the most closely held secrets in U.S. diplomaAt the time Kissinger was in Peking conferring with Premier Chou En-lai, it was in this all Hill Station about 50 announced that he was recovering from a stomach indisposition in the mountains of Pakistan.

At the time Kissinger was and was reported to have that Yahya knew at the time that Kistinger had flown to Fel to miles from Rawalpindi.

Meanwhile the was in Pakistan the U.S. Air Force plane as the while I is high was in Pakistan.

He canceled a formal din-ner with Pakistani President Mohamed Yahya Khan scheduled for that evening the U.S. Air Force plane assigned to him so that it would be noticed, the informants

Officials in Washington feel

Meanwife regards in Rawalpines are yesterday that while kishiner was in Peking, a stand in look-alike took part in a posserade in athiagali to rainforce the deception that Kasinger was here Maneinled Press that Yahya knew at the time that Kissinger had flown to Peking.

Meanwhile, informants in Rawalpindi said yesterday that while Kissinger was in Peking, a stand-in look-alike took part in a motorcade in Nathiagali to reinforce the deception that Kissinger was there.

Associated Press