JUL 2 8 1971

Pentagon Data Cited as Parley Of Congress War Foes Opens

C

By RICHARD HALLORAN

6

Despite a plea from Repre-sentative Bradford F. Morse, Republican of Massachusetts, that the discussion be nonpartisan, many statements criti-cized the Nixon Administration. statements criti-

Distortion Charged

Anthony J. Russo, the former Rand economist who has been sentenced to prison for refusing to answer questions before a grand jury on how the Pentagrand jury on now the renta-gone papers were made public, asserted that "the present poli-cy rests on as many lies and as much deceit as we see in the Pentagon papers." Mr. Russo's sentence has been stayed pend-ing appeal sentence has been stayed pend-ing appeal. A key participant was Melvin Gurtov, an author of the Penta-gon study. Mr. Gurtov, who re-signed from the Rand Corpora-tion last month, accused the Nixon Administration of con-tinuing "a pattern of deception in American policy." "The truth about U.S. objec-

By RICHARD HALLORANSpecial to The New York TimesWASHINGTON, July 27-A group of 17 antiwar Con-gressmen made the first con-the Pentagon study of the warin Vietnam to attack the NixonAdministration's policies inIndochina.twes and activities in Indo-china is being distorted or hid-den as much now as before,"Mr. Gurtov said that he op-posed the war even before hetook part in the research forthe Pentagon papers, whichwere concerned with the ac-tions of the Johnson, Kennedy,Eisenhower and Truman Adithe present Administration.Mr. Gurtov said that he op-posed the war even before hetook part in the research forthe Pentagon papers and thatthey only confirmed his opposi-tion to United States policies.General Nguyen Van Thieu, said in thepolitical foe of PresidentNguyen Van Thieu, said in theput the distates had failedtunited States had formerounderstand the political ormilitary situation in Vietnam.Tran Van Dinh, a formerbasador from Vietnam to thebuited States, contended thatthe Pentagon papers showed andmerican "contempt" for the crats. Opportunity Called Unique Representative John G. Dow, Democrat of New York, who is chairman of the informal con-ference, said in an opening statement that the publication of "the Pentagon papers pro-vides us with the unique op-portunity to view the lessons of history while their conse-quences are still a daily ex-perience." He said that throughout the meeting, "we hope that full at-tention will be focused on the apparent failure of American Constitutional processes as dis-closed by the Vietnam involve-ment." Despite a plea from Repre-