

Diplomatic sources in Washington, not further identified by the AP, said today that they believe there is a possibility that President Nixon will fly to Peking immediately after a scheduled meeting in Alaska on Sept. 26th with Emperor Hirohito of Japan. The sources said that they believed that Mr. Nixon will visit the People's Republic of China from Sept. 28th to Oct. 1st.

(Complete item.)