Text of Draft Accord to Ban Biological

Special to The New York Times

GENEVA, Sept. 30—Fol-lowing is the official English version of a draft convention on the prohibtion of biological warfare and of the produc-tion of biological weapons, as referred to the United Na-tions General Assembly today by the Geneva disarmament conference:

THE STATES PARTIES TO THIS CONVENTION,

Determined to act with a view to achieving effective progress toward general and complete disarmament, incomplete disarmament, in-cluding the prohibition and elimination of all types of weapons of mass destruc-tion, and convinced that the prohibition of the develop-ment, production and stock-piling of chemical and bac-teriological (biological) weap-ons and their elimination, through effective measures, will facilitate the achieve-ment of general and com-plete-disarmament under strict effective international control, control,

Recognizing the important significance of the Geneva protocol of 17 June 1925 for the prohibition of the use in war of asphyxiating, poison-ous or other gases and of bacteriological methods of warfare, and conscious also of the contribution which the said protocol has already made, and continues to make, to mitigating the horrors of wai to mitigating the horrors of war, Reaffirming their adher-ence to the principals and objectives of that protocol and calling upon all states to comply strictly with them, Recalling that the General Assembly of the United Na-tions has repeatedly con-demned all actions contrary to the principles and objec-tives of the Geneva protocol of 17 June 1925, Desiring to contribute to the strengthening of confi-dence between people and the general improvement of the international atmosphere, Desiring also to contribute to the realization of the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, Convinced of the im-

Nations, Convinced

Nations, Convinced of the im-portance and urgency of eliminating from the arsenals of states, through effective measures, such dangerous weapons of mass destruction as those using chemical or bacteriological (biological) agents bacteriological (biological) agents, Recognizing that an agree-ment on the prohibition of bacteriological (biological) and toxin weapons represents a first possible step toward the achievement of agree-ment on effective measures also for prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of chemical weap-ons, and determined to con-tinue negotiations to that end, end, Determined, for the sake of all mankind, to exclude completely the possibility of bacteriological (biological) agents and toxins being used as weapons, Convinced that such use would be repugnant to the conscience of mankind and that no effort should be spared to minimize this risk, HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE I

Each state party to this convention undertakes never in any circumstances to de-velop, produce, stockpile or otherwise acquire or retain: (1) Microbial or other bio-(1) Microbial or other bio-logical agents, or toxins whatever their origin or method of production, of types and in quantities that have no justification for pro-phylactic, protective or other peaceful purposes.

(2) Weapons, equipment or to use such agents or toxins for hostile purposes or in armed conflict. ARTICLE II Each state party to this

Each state party to this convention undertakes to destroy, or to divert to peace-ful purposes, as soon as pos-sible but not later than nine months after the entry into force of the convention, all agents, toxins, weapons, agents, toxins, weapons, equipment and means of de-livery specified in Article I of the convention which are in its possession or under its jurisdiction or control. In implementing the provisions of this article all necessary safety precautions chall be of this article all necessary safety precautions shall be observed to protect popula-tions and the environment. ARTICLE III Each state party to this convention undertakes not to transfer to any recipient whatsoever, directly or in-directly, and not in any way to assist, encourage or induce any state, group of states or international organizations to any state, group of states or international organizations to manufacture or otherwise ac-quire any of the agents, tox-ins, weapons, equipment or means of delivery specified in Article I of the convention. ARTICLE IV Fach state party to this ARTICLE IV Each state party to this convention shall, in accord-ance with its constitutional processes, take any necessary measures to prohibit and pre-vent development, production, stockpiling, acquisition or re-tention of the agents, toxins, weapons, equipment and means of delivery specified in Article I of the conven-tion within the territory of such state, under its juris-diction or under its control anywhere. anywhere.

ARTICLE V

The states parties to the convention undertake to consult one another and to co-operate in solving any prob-lems which may arise in re-lation to the objective of, or in the application of the pro-visions of, this convention. Consultation and cooperation pursuant to this article may also be undertaken through appropriate international pro-cedures within the former cedures within the frame-work of the United Nations' and in accordance with its Charter.

ARTICLE VI

ARTICLE VI (1) Any state party to the convention which finds that any other state party is act-ing in breach of obligations deriving from the provisions of this convention may lodge a complaint with the Secur-ity Council of the United Nations. Such a complaint should include all possible evidence confirming its valid-ity, as well as a request for its consideration by the Se-curity Council. curity Council. (2) Each state party to the convention undertakes to cooperate in carrying out any investigation which the Se-curity Council may initiate, in accordance with the provi-sions of the United Nations Charter, on the basis of the complaint received by the Charter, on the basis of the complaint received by the Council. The Security Council shall inform the states par-ties to the convention of the results of the investigation. ARTICLE VII Each state party to the convention undertakes to provide or support assistance, in accordance with the Unit-ed Nations Charter, to any party to the convention which

ed Nations Charter, to any party to the convention which so requests, if the Security Council decides that such party has been exposed to danger as a result of viola-tion of this convention. ARTICLE VIII Nothing in this convention shall be interpreted as in any way limiting or detracting from the obligations assumed by any state under the Gene-va protocol of 17 June 1925 for the prohibition of the use in war of asphyxiating, pois-onous or other gases, and of onous or other gases, and of bacteriological methods of ARTICLE X poses.

ARTICLE X

ARTICLE X (1) The states parties to the convention undertake to facilitate, and have the right to participate in, the fullest possible exchange of equip-ment, materials and scientific and technological informa-tion for the use of bacterio-logical (biological) agents and toxins for peaceful pur-poses. Parties to the conven-tion in a position to do so poses. Parties to the conven-tion in a position to do so shall also cooperate in con-tributing, individually or to-gether with other states or international organizations, to the further development and application of scientific discoveries in the field of bacteriology (biology) for prevention of disease, or for other peaceful purposes. (2) This convention shall be implemented in a manner designed to avoid hampering be implemented in a manner designed to avoid hampering the economic or technological development of states parties to the convention or interna-tional cooperation in the field of peaceful bacteriological (biological) activities, includ-ing the international ex-change of bacteriological (biological) agents and toxins (biological) agents and toxins and equipment for the proc-essing, use or production of

6 0

NYTimes

(biological) bacteriological agents and toxins for peaceful purposes in accordance with the provisions of this the provisions of this convention.

ARTICLE XI

Any state party may pro-pose amendments to this convention. Amendments to this con-vention. Amendments shall enter into force for each state party accepting the amendments upon their acceptance by a majority of the states parties to the conof vention and thereafter for each remaining state party on the date of acceptance by it.

ARTICLE^L XII

Five years after the entry into force of this convention, or earlier if it is requested by a majority of parties to the convention by submitting a proposal to this effect to the depositary governments, a conference of states parties to the convention shall be held at Geneva, Switzerland, to review the operation of this convention, with a view to assuring that the purposes of the preamble and the pro-visions of the convention in visions of the convention, including the provisions concluding the provisions con-cerning negotiations on chemical weapons, are being realized. Such review shall take into account any new scientific and technological developments relevant to this convention.

ARTICLE XIII

ARTICLE XIII (1) This convention shall be of unlimited duration. (2) Each state party to this convention shall, in ex-ercising its national sover-eignty, have the right to withdraw from the conven-tion if it decides that ex-traordinary events, related to the subject matter of this traordinary events, related to the subject matter of this convention, have jeopardized the supreme interests of its country. It shall give notice of such withdrawal to all other states parties to the convention and to the United Nations Security Council convention and to the United Nations Security Council three months in advance. Such notice shall include a statement of the extraordi-nary events it regards as having jeopardized its su-preme interests.

ARTICLE XIV

ARTICLE XIV (1) This convention shall be open to all states for signa-ture. Any state which does not sign the convention be-fore its entry into force in accordance with Paragarph 3 of this article may accede to it at any time

(2) This convention shall be subject to ratification by signatory states. Instruments of ratification and instruments of accession shall be deposi-ted with the governments of are hereby designated the de-

(3) This convention shall enter into force after the deposit of the instruments of ratification by 22 govern-ments, including the govern-ments designated as deposi-taries of the convention.

(4) For states whose instru-ments of ratification or accession are deposited subsequent to the entry into force of this convention, it shall enter into force on the date of the de-posit of their instruments of ratification or accession.

ratification or accession. (5) The depositary govern-ments shall promptly inform all signatory and acceding states of the date of each signature, the date of deposit of each instrument of ratifi-cation or of accession and the date of the entry into force of this convention and of the date of the entry into force of this convention, and of the receipt of other notices. (6) This convention shall be registered by the depositary governments pursuant to ar-ticle 102 of the Charter of the United Nations.

ARTICLE XV

ARTICLE XV This convention, the Chi-nese, English, French, Russian and Spanish texts of which are equally authentic, shall be deposited in the archives of the depositary governments. Duly certified copies of this convention shall be transmit-ted by the depositary govern-ments to the governments of the signatory and acceding states. states.