

KISSINGER EXTENDS CHINA TRIP BY A DAY

NYTimes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)

—The White House said today that Henry A. Kissinger had remained an additional day in Peking and would return here Tuesday afternoon to report to President Nixon on arrangements for the President's forthcoming visit to China.

The Kissinger party, traveling aboard President Nixon's jet airliner, had been expected to land here today after a 10-day visit.

But the assistant presidential press secretary, Gerald Warren, said the Kissinger party had stayed over to complete discussions and arrangements.

Mr. Kissinger, the President's adviser on national security affairs, has remained in touch with Mr. Nixon throughout his trip.

It is expected that the timing and the agenda for Mr. Nixon's talks in Peking with Premier Chou En-lai and probably with Chairman Mao Tse-tung are being worked out in the Peking discussions. There has been speculation that the President's visit could come as early as mid-November or December.

26 OCT