

Potomac Fever

Birch Bayh says he only wants to make sure the whole country isn't in contempt of court.

Maybe Lyndon Johnson wasn't much of a President, but he turned out to be a great novelist.

It's reported that Chiang Kai-shek is spending these mornings going over movies of that blasted ping pong game.

One thing about William Rehnquist—you know exactly where he stands: Both feet planted on the Bill of Rights.

'He Has A Real Judicial Mind, Senator — He Thinks There Are Also Occasions When It Would Be Okay To Uphold People's Rights'

