Nation's '72 Output Rise Projected at $98-Billion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24 - consensus of private forecasts The nation's total output of which ewre about night.
goods and sservices will rise The basic forecast was in $$ 98$-billion this year to $$ 1,145$ - cluded in the budget as a basis billion, according to the official for the revenue estimates Government forecast disclosed Apart from a G.N.P. of $$ 1,145$ today. billion, the forecast included an The forecast for the gross estimate of personal income at national product was con- $$ 924$-billion in this calendar taine, with no detailed break- year up $$ 67$-billion, and cor down, in President Nixon's prorate profits at $$ 99$-billion, up Budget Message to Congress. $$ 14$-billion. More detail will be disclosed in his Economic Report later this week.
Unlike last year's, this year's Government forecast for the economy was well within the range of the many private forecasts that have been published in recent weeks, though it was Last year, the Government recast which proved far to it forecast, which proved far too economic stimulus from the George P. Shultz, director of the Office of Management and Budget, said at a news conference that the economic forecast implied a decline in unemployment to "the vicinity of 5 per cent" of the labor force by the end of the year, compared with 6 per cent at present.

Federal budget would begin to

COMPARISON OF FULL EMPLOYMENT BUDGETS

The New York Times/Jan. 25, 1972
taper off in this calendar year, parently be spending at an though they said stimulus annual rate of about $\$ 240-$ would remain substantial billion, possibly more, in the through mid-1973. current six-month period. The the The tapering would come rate would rise only slightly about because the level of to $\$ 243.3$-billion in the new spending reached in the first fiscal year starting next July sic months of the calendar year-the last half of the 1972 fiscal year-will not b $\qquad$ Officials said it was desirable ignificantly exceeded in the stimulus "reeling in" on the fiscal year. The Government will ap-| full employment.

$$
\frac{1-25-72}{541}
$$

