Paris Talks Put Off as U.S. Protests Rally

The North Vietnamese and Vietcong delegations protested against Mr. Porter's refusal to agree to the usual meeting time next. Thursday, denouncing what they described as "this act of sabotage and this arrogant attitude."

Today's session

Today's session was marked by invective and accusations of bad faith. Its bitter character was the more striking because it came after several weeks when issues had been discussed and an impression had been

By HENRY GINIGER

TANIS, Feb. 10—The United States invested at the vertical discovery slight, which is scheduled to begin Feb. 21.

The Biniced States are stated to both sides, however slight, which is scheduled to begin Feb. 21.

Neither he nor Mr. Dan would represent allowing the representations prominent peace advocates a state of the ment seed of organizing at three-day stiller meeting with the support of South United States included such proposed at the vertical many seed of organizing at three-day stiller meeting which he support in the remover of the remover of the peace talks would of hervard thin seed of organizing at three-day stiller meeting which he support in medicine, and Howard Zinn, and would affect the saim and place "moleculed" pressure on meeting, which he saim and place "moleculed" pressure on meeting, which he saim and the negotiators.

William I. Porter, the clied and the same and the negotiators.

William I. Porter, the clied and the same and