Jemos Expect Nixon Bombshel

Examiner Washington Bureau By Harry Kelly

the possible." nam War during President Nixon's trip to China "is clearly within the realm of sive settlement of the Vietspeculated today that an announcement of a comprehenbombshell from Peking, mittee, wary of a political Democratic National Com-WASHINGTON - The in advance approving a setthe Democratic National by FACT. a newsletter of were able to arrange such a wanted to be on the record Committee which obviously tlement if the President The possibility was raised

> Peking visit. dramatic move during his

that the Vietnam War was settled." said FACT. announcement in Peking those cheering a presidential found in the front ranks of "Democrats would be bility of a secret Asian sumby speculating on the possiwent on to thicken the plot mit to end the war in Indo-The democratic newsletter tion, it was understood, is tion but on a political evalnot based on new information moves. uation of recent administra-The Democratic speculacould also be a Democratic effort to hypo public expectations to the point settlement would be disapmeeting less than a Vietnam pointing. that any result of the Peking can spring it," said one. caught in the middle of a cism of the President's denunciation of Sen. Ed-- "where he would put the Democratic frontmund Muskie for his critified, suggested that the ad-Chinese tiger trap if Nixon runner alone on center stage been a calculated effort to peace proposals may have mininstration's concerted who declined to be identi-Democratic strategists a lot of popularity right as the hero of the peace way to push Muskie forward ministration go out of its "Why else would the adthe Peking meeting." cut him off at the knees at tion knows it is in position to "Maybe the administraing in advance a fall-back were worried enough by the has cautioned against exthe Democrats showed they pecting dramatic results, trip that they were preparpotentials of the President's Although the President

"Given Mr. Nixon's addicnow?" said another.

could work out a settlement: ter continued with its scenario of how the President The Democratic newslet-would agree to an immenist nations — meeting with Mr. Nixon in Peking of all American POWs by Indochina and to the release diate cease fire throughout ers from the Asian Commu-"A secret summit of lead-it would seem plausible that pled with his repeated statements," said FACT, "couworks." jor breakthroughs in Peking, ments not to expect any masomething big is in the would resign in the immepaign culminating in nationelements of South Vietment of national accord concreation of a new govern-Thieu (of South Vietnam) by the same date. President al elections in mid-Novemnamese society and to a taining representatives of all diate future and agree to the the withdrawal of all Amerithree-month election camcan forces from Indochina "Mr. Nixon would pledge ment, Mr. Nixon would ber or early December. "To dramatize the settle-bring two POWs back to the