BIG GAIN REPORTED IN MOSCOW TALKS

SEP 1 4 197:

Kissinger Is Said to Agree on Settling of Soviet Debt

-Wider Trade Is Seen

NYTimes

By HEDRICK SMITH

Special to The New York Times

MOSCOW, Sept. 13 well-placed Soviet source reported tonight that Henry Kissinger and the Soviet leadership had made a breakthrough in the deadlocked negotiations over expanding Soviet-American trade.

The Soviet informant reported that agreement had been reached in principle on Moscow's outstanding World War II debt for American Lendlease with repayment to run 30 years, extending into the 21st century. Precise terms were not disclosed, though the amount was believed to involve about $500 million. .

[In Washington, Administration officials, reporting on another economic accord with an Eastern European country, said the United States had agreed to help Rumania finance an offshore oil drilling venture in the Black Sea. Page 12.]

One Soviet source said that resolution of the Lend-Lease issue was expected to pave the way for exchange of trade missions and large credits to the Soviet Union from the American Export-Import Bank.

Soviet sources also expected that the Nixon Administration would make efforts to win Congressional approval for granting most-favored-nation status

Continued on Page 12, Column 4

Major Gain Réported in Talks To Widen U.S.-Soviet Trade

the special high tariffs now imposed on Soviet exports to the United States.

As a prerequisite to the kind of American trade concessions that Moscow has been seeking, the Nixon Administration has leaders to nudge North Vietnisisted on settlement of the wartime debts the Soviet Union incurred under the Lend-Lease incurred under the Lend-Lease Act of March, 1941, which authorized loans of arms and supplies to countries fighting the trade issue was linked to prog-Axis powers before the United ress on Vietnam. States entered the war.

No American Comment

disclosures. The only official comment from the American side was that Mr. Kissinger had concluded his scheduled three days of talks with Soviet leaders. American officials declined with Mr. Kissinger was seen as even to say with whom he had an indication that the two sides whether any arrangements expected.

The first word of a trade by efforts of Senator Senator A. Ribicoff, Democrat of Conning in a dispatch by Victor and others to have to have to have to have to have the correspondent for in the trade talks, but American officials would not say how it had affected the outcome.

it had affected the outcome.

It was understood, however, that, as scheduled, Mr. Kissinger had met with the Communist party leader, Leonid I. Brezhnev, and Premier Aleksei N. Kosygin as well as other hgih officials. Yesterday, a long luncheon was given for him by Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Occidental to Open Office

As if to emphasize the grow-As if to emphasize the growing prospects for trade, Tass, the Soviet press agency, reported tonight that the Occidental Petroleum Corporation, had been granted permission to open an office here. Earlier this summer Dr. Armand Hammer, Occidental's chairman, signed a wide-ranging agreement allowing for cooperation in exploitation of Soviet natural gas and oil deposits and com-gas and oil deposits and combined projects in other fields.

Only one other American industrial concern, Pullman, Inc., has been licensed to open a Moscow office. One of its subsidiaries, Swindell-Dressler, is designing a foundry for the huge truck plant on the Kama River about 550 miles east of

Although Mr. Kissinger was atthough Mr. Rissinger was understood to have dealt with such other vital issues as Vietnam, European security and talks on reduction of forces the next phase of the strategic arms negotiations, and the sit-uation in the Middle East, there was no information on how those talks had proceeded. Mr. Kissinger leaves tomor-row for London and later Paris to meet with British and French leaders. In Paris, he is also expected to have another secret negotiating session on the Viet-

Continued From Page 1, Col. 7 nam war with Le Duc Tho, the —or equal tariff treatment—to the Soviet Union to replace the special high treatment weekend

In the past American officials are understood to have considered that the prospect of a major expansion of trade would be an inducement for Soviet no indication tonight whether the evident progress on the

The importance of trade in the current round of talks was There was no comment from emphasized by the participation American side in the Soviet of Under Secretary of Cominally, no high-level trade talks an indication that the two sides et.
There were also no indication agreement more quickly than

A. RIBICOIT, Democrat of Connecticut, and others to have Congress take a stand against tariff and trade concessions to is widely believed to have concessions to is widely believed to have connecticut.

Moscow so long as the Soviet Union retains new educational taxes on would-be emigrants, including Jews seeking to go to Israel.

The mounting Congressional feeling on this issue was presumed to have been mentioned in the trade talks, but Amerian officials would not say how pute, an obstacle in previous talks, "had been cleared" and that large American credits to Moscow, an exchange of trade missions, and "probable" most-favored-nation status for Mos-