Butz Now Doubts Advisability Of Aide's Role in Soviet Deal

NYTimes

By United Press International WASHINGTON, Oct. 4-Agri- in taking part in the Soviet-culture Secretary Earl L. Butz American grain negotiations in said today that he would prob- Moscow and then shifting to ably have advised a former Continental, a major United assistant not to participate in States grain exporter, before grain negotiations with the the deal was consummated. Soviet Union last spring if he The Agriculture Department had known of the assistant's is under fire for its handling plans to join a private com-pany that ultimately sold wheat to the Russians. In a hallway interview at the the entire United States wheat Agriculture Department, he said Con that his likely advice to the former Assistant Agriculture Secretary, Clarence D. Palmby, would not have been based on any fear of impropriety but "on the appearance" of it.

Both he and Mr. Palmby, who left the Agriculture Department in June to join Continental Grain Company of New York, have denied that Mr. Palmby was guilty of any wrongdoing plans. He said that he was not sug-gesting that he would have tuled Mr. Palmby out of the talks, "but I probably would have advised him against it." "Had I known, I would have seriously discussed with, him the advisability of his going," Dr. Butz said. He added that this was not based on any fear of impropriety, but "on the appearance." "We have to operate in a goldfish bowl," he said. Has approved a reimbursement bill. Final action this session is now unlikely. Government sources said Government sources said Government with the So-viet Union would be announced shortly under which one-third U.S.R. would be shipped in American-flag vessels, one-third in third-country ships. Following are the questions began covering their commit-

.

OCT

5 1972

New Hearings Sought By E. W. KENWORTHY Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Oct. Representative John Melcher, Democrat of Montana, called on the House Agriculture Sub-committee on Livestock and Grains today to resume public hearings into the circumstances surrounding the sale of wheat to the Soviet Union.

On Sept. 14, 18 and 19, the subcommittee, whose chairman subcommittee, whose chairman is Representative Graham Pur-cell, Democrat of Texas, held hearings to determine whether six large grain exporters had made "windfall" profits from the sale of about 415 million bushels of wheat to the Soviet. The hearings also sought to learn whether many farmers in learn whether many farmers in early harvest states had lost money by selling wheat at low prices because they had not been told by the Department of Agriculture of the magnitude of the sele

Agriculture of the magnitude of the sale. Today, Mr. Melcher, a mem-ber of the subcommittee, said that it had failed to elicit from witnesses from the exporting companies and the Department of Agriculture the answers to meany questions that hed been of Agriculture the answers to many questions that had been raised by critics of the sale. Mr. Melcher said "answers are needed, and they are needed now." if the public is to get "a clear understanding of just how valuable the Department of Agriculture's tender, loving care has been for the grain traders."

Talmadge Pledges Inquiry

On the Senate side of the Capitols Senator Herman E. Tal-madge, Democrat of Georgia, who is chairman of the Agri-culture Committee, said that his committee would conduct a

Continued From Page 1, Col. 8 thorough and bipartisan in-that Mr. Melcher said "must be vestigation into the "disturbing" answered before the public questions" raised by the sale of the public ever gets the complete story "as soon as possible after the election on Nov. 7." large United States grain ex-there where the sale of the public ever gets the complete story complete story behind the Russian wheat deal" and the reasons behind the questions:

porters and speculators inside other developments involving information that enabled them the controversial sale of wheat porters and speculators made them information that enabled them to sell to the Russians at pre-made with the aid of Federal made with the aid of Federal contracts, what was the price paid by the grain companies and on what dates?" A bill to reimburse farmers in part for losses sustained Dr. Butz said today that he would have "seriously dis-cussed" the advisability of leaving Mr. Palmby out of the the similar bill two weeks ago. The plans. He said that he would have gesting that he would have bill. Final action this session is information that enabled them the controversial sale of wheat the aid of Federal paid by the grain companies and on what dates?" According to the testimony of Clarence D. Palmby, who re-signed as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture on June 7 to be-come vice president of Con-tinental Grain Company, the wheat for about $1.63 or $1.65 a bushel.

Q"For every purchase of wheat to fill the Russian sales contracts, what was the price paid by the grain companies and on what dates?"

ments by cash purchases as partment of Agriculture, but is shipped, taking a chance soon as the first contracts were they said that they were op-that the subsidy will be larger concluded with the Russians, posed to having them made then. concluded with the Russians, posed to having them made between July 5 and July 11. public. But they refused to say how g"On what dates and for much cash wheat was pur-how much wheat at what price chased in July and for what advising wheat farmers that the average price they would receive for the year was likely to be no more than $1.31 a bushel. By mid-August, the farmers were receiving $1.51 and by the end of the month about $1.70. §"What futures chases registered with the Dethe average price they would receive for the year was likely to be no more than $1.31 a bushel. By mid-August, the farmers were receiving $1.51 and by the end of the month about $1.70. ¶"What futures trading was done by these grain companies subsequent to their sales to the Russians?" Mr. Palmby and Mr., Saun- Mr. Palmby and Mr., Saun- traget, for future delivery at a certain price. They said that futures contracts had been reported to the Commodity Exchange Authority of the De-

Consequently, critics of the deal have charged that the ex-porters could have made a windfall on sales made in July (when the subsidy was about 12 to 15 cents a bushel) by on April 8, and—following an-other offer—informed Mr. Butz on May 12 that he wished to resign. He submitted his resig-nation May 23 and joined Con-tinental on June 8, a month before President Nixon an-nounced the grain deal. On Sept. 25—after being questioned by a Columbia Broadcasting System reporter about purchase of a New York apartment on April 5, three days before leaving for Mos-cow—Mr. Palmby wrote Repre-sentative Purcell, saying that he would like to add "supple-mental details" to his earlier chronological account. He said that in early March "after an approach from the president of Continental Grain Company [Michel Fribourg]," he and his wife had spent Russia as head of the Ameri-can trade delegation?" Mr. Palmby testified on Sept. 14 that he had received a job offer from Continental "around the first of March," but did not take it "very seriously." He left for Moscow with Mr. Butz on April 8, and—following an-other offer—informed Mr. Butz on May 12 that he wished to