“Those who have had a chance for four years and could not produce peace, should not be given another chance.”

Richard Nixon

Santa Monica, California

This advertisement was paid for by Clergy and Laity Concerned, a religious group supported by 43,000 clergy and lay people throughout the United States. We have labored for the past eight years to help bring peace to Indochina. We believe that the war is a nonpartisan issue, and call on the President, in the name of God, to stop the bombing and end the war now.

Clergy and Laity Concerned, Dr. George Weeber, Chairman.
