

Kissinger's Future Plans

Cambridge, Mass.

Presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger will decide within one month whether he will return to his professorship at Harvard, a university official said yesterday.

Professor James Q. Wilson said he met in Washington with Kissinger November 28, and Kissinger "indicated to me that he had not yet made a decision on his plans."

Last weekend, President Nixon said Kissinger would continue to serve as his adviser on national security affairs in his second administration.

The Harvard department is anxious to fill Kissinger's position, Wilson said, and would like a decision from him as soon as possible.
