

Tricia's Surprise Visit

It was all supposed to be a secret, but now it's out — Tricia Nixon Cox and her husband Edward spent two days last week in Yugoslavia. They're shown in a Belgrade theater where they attended a showing of the American musical, "Hair." A security man tried to prevent the taking of this photo of the President's daughter, but was unsuccessful.

Nixon's Lonely New Year's

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Nixon was expected to spend a lonely New Year's Eve at his Camp David mountaintop retreat with no family members around to ring in the new year with him.

The First Lady planned to fly to California today to appear as a guest in the Rose Bowl parade on New Year's day. She will ride in an open car behind actor John Wayne, parade grand marshal.

Mrs. Nixon will also attend luncheon hosted by her alma mater, the University of Southern California, with Governor Reagan and Ohio Gov. John Gilligan. She will sit on the USC side during the game.

Her return plans still are indefinite, and a spokesman said she may remain in California for a day or two.

Mrs. Nixon will represent the President at memorial services for House Democratic leader Hale Boggs in New Orleans on Jan. 4. Boggs' plane disappeared during a campaign trip in Alaska in October.

The Nixon daughters and sons-in-law were on holiday in Greece and Russia.
