Nixon, at 60, Says 'Never Slow Down'

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8-On the eve of his 60th birthday, President Nixon said the way to thwart advancing age was to avoid boredom, look to the future and—above all—to have young people around.

"Never slow down," the President said today in an interview. The Presidency has many problems, he said with a smile, "but boredom is the least of them."

The most important thing for keeping young in spirit, Mr. Nixon said, "is to have young people around." He cited the influence of his daughters and young staff members because they "tend to keep you young."

Continued on Page 26, Column 1

NIXON, AT 60, SAYS DON'T SLOW DOW

minute session with two wire-service reporters, but limited the subject matter to the President's observations upon reach- he said.

boredom as cause."

some of his milestone decades:

At 20, he said, he was a junior necessary to try to keep physically fit. He described how he tries to swim every day when he is at his Camp David retreat in the Maryland mountains. He said he took a plungar at the control of the the cold.

"Are you trying to pull my leg?" the President said the dent said. He said he had never rookie agent asked one of the vteran agents.

what time will do, the first time at 0."

to be here at this time at 60."

While screenly avoiding per-

Veran agents.

Veran agents.

White House responded to a request for a birthday interview by arranging the 25
Veran agents.

Veran agents.

White House responded passing of decades for himself, his family and his friends.

Veran agents.

Veran agents.

Who Nixon said he had given while generally avoiding personal comments, Mr. Nixon discussed age in regard to holding political office.

He said that the ideal age to the said that "Never slow down the spiritual heart, then age is not going to pull yo udown," Mr. Nixon said.

Rather than the burdens of office causing a breakdown in health, the President pointed to boredom as "a more likely cause."

The President said he did not want to receive any gifts because he had just about everything he wanted. But he admitted with a smile, "I need ties. I can only wear them once or twice."

A Look Back

Mr. Nixon looked back on some of his milestone decades:

Mr. Nixon looked back on some of his milestone decades:

treat in the Maryland mountains. He said he took a plunge Bougainville in the South Palin the heated outdoor pool cific during World War II. At Sunday when it was five degrees below zero.

He laughingly recalled that a new Secret Service agent could not believe that the Presnow, at 60, he has just been defeated for the govacould not believe that the Presnow, at 60, he has just been REMEMBER THE NEEDIEST!

ident was going swimming in re-elected for a second term as President. "A man can never what time will do," the Presirun for the House of Representatives was in the 30's because it was "a back-breaking physical job if you do it well" and it takes about 25 years to qualdent's observations upon reaching his 60th birthday.

The President stressed that slowing down as a person advances in age is a "terrible error."

"Never slow down the spiritual heart, then age is not itual heart it where.

where."

The President was reluctant to discuss at what age he thought a man should run for the Presidency. He said much depended on the times, noting that England was "very fortunate to get Churchill at 67" and France was lucky to get Delay. France was lucky to get De Gaulle in his late 60's.

However, terming the Presidency "a very demanding position physically, mentally and emotionally," he said that unless a man had "reasonable physicals in all these